Joseph Robel Pleads Guilty To Assault

Joseph J. Robel, 35, former San Mateo and Palo Alto laundry owner accused of a murderous assault on Mrs. Eva Allison of East Palo Alto Oct. 23 after a lover's quarrel, pleaded guilty in superior court Wednesday to a lesser charge of assault to do great bodily harm. Judge Maxwell McNutt sentenced the ex-laundryman to San Quentin.

J. W. Ehrlich, attorney for Robel, won the court's approval to the guilty plea to the lesser offense over objections of Dep. Dist. Atty. Louis B. Dematteis, who contended that the crime was a deliberate and carefully planned attempt at murder.

The judge ruled that the practical effect of his action would be the same as a conviction on the more serious charge and offered to join the district attorney in an explanatory statement to the State Board of Prison Terms and Paroles.

Ehrlich pleaded that Robel, because of his infatuation for Mrs. Allison, had lost his business and declared that Mrs. Robel plans to sue for divorce. He argued that Robel acted in the heat of passion while in a mental turmoil of jealousy, and was entitled to consideration because he had no prior offenses against his record. He held that the maximum term for the lesser offense was serious enough.

"This crime was planned for days in advance," Dematteis countered. "Robel purchased one gun in San Francisco, tried it out, was dissatisfied, took it back and bought another. He took Mrs. Allison to a Palo Alto restaurant and tried to put some substance in her coffee—possibly sleeping powder—in an effort to deprive her of her senses.

"He then took her into San Mateo County and shot her twice with a .25 caliber revolver and expressed the intent freely to kill her."

Dematteis recalled that Robel drove the woman from East Palo Alto to Sacramento, keeping her in the car without medical attention from between 7 and 8 p.m. until the following morning.

Judge McNutt held that the practical result would be the same, allowed Robel to plead guilty to the lesser offense. The penalty for murderous assault with a deadly weapon is 1 to 14 years; for assault with a deadly weapon to do great bodily harm, 1 to 10 years.

John H. Topham Killed in Action

Lt. John Howard (Jack) Topham, son of Dr. and Mrs. Edward Topham of Acacia Ln., Redwood City, and San Francisco, was killed in action in the South Pacific on Nov. 13, his parents revealed this week.

The young officer was a pursuit pilot with the air forces and had been stationed in the Hawaiian Islands for only a few months at the time of his death, his parents said.

Lieutenant Topham was graduated from Stanford University with the class of 1940 and entered air corps training a year ago in November. He won his wings and commission last June at the advance pursuit school at Lake Charles, La., and was sent overseas immediately. At Stanford he belonged to Sigma Phi fraternity.

Besides his parents, Lieutenant Topham leaves a brother, Edward Topham Jr. He was born in San Francisco July 15, 1918.

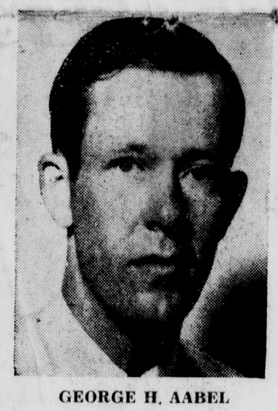
Three Peninsulans Die in Crash

ROBERT M. ELZEY



GEORGE H. AABEL

Three Peninsulans lost their lives in the crash of the naval transport plane which was found Sunday in Mendocino County after having been missing since Jan. 21.

There were no survivors of the crash, the navy announced today. Nineteen persons, among them several high navy officers, were aboard the plane, according to Associated Press.

The Peninsulans, civilian personnel operating the four-motored seaplane, were Capt. Robert McNair Elzey, 229 Lennox Ave., Atherton; Third Officer George Aabel, 1255 Crane St., Menlo Park, and John G. Hill, 1100 Cordilleras Ave., San Carlos.

Elzey, 36-year-old pilot of the ship, leaves a wife and 21-months-old son. He was a native of Pennsylvania and studied engineering at Lafayette College, Drexel Institute and Temple University. He was an aeronautical engineer as well as a pilot and the veteran of 200,000 miles of ocean flying during one year alone. Since 1936 he had been attached to Pan American Airlines, but received his flight training with the navy.

Aabel was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Aabel of Menlo Park. Mrs. Aabel has been under a doctor's care since first word of her son's possible death was revealed a week ago.

Aabel was 26 and a graduate of Sequoia High School. He also attended the University of California Agricultural College at Davis. He had one sister, Mrs. Harold Wild.

Hill was flight steward aboard the airship. He was 33 years of age and with his wife and 5½-year-old daughter, Mary Ellen, had been a resident of San Carlos for about a year. He attended Denver University and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Hill of Denver.

Mrs. Hill, who was confident that her husband would be found alive and unhurt, received official notification of the tragedy yesterday afternoon. Her first thought was to keep the news from Mary Ellen, but the child said prophetically: "I know why you won't tell me."

Mrs. Hill said no funeral arrangements have been made as yet.

"I have to be brave," she told a reporter. "I have my child to think of."

But tears came as she gave the details of his obituary.

"Just say he was a wonderful husband and daddy," she said.

Utterly shattered, and burned almost beyond recognition, the shapeless wreckage of the plane that left Pearl Harbor Jan. 20 on an overnight hop to San Francisco, was found at the foot of a cliff in Southern Mendocino County.

It crashed there, in a wild mountainous region, 100 miles north of San Francisco, during a storm on Jan. 21.

Bodies were taken out on pack horses and in army jeeps. It was a seven-mile trip through roadless brush land to the highway.

Among the first bodies identified were those of Adm. Robert H. English, commander of the Pacific fleet submarine force, and of the only woman aboard, Lt. (jg) Edna O. Morrow, a navy nurse from Pasadena. Ten other naval officers were aboard the plane.

Mrs. F. D. Grunvold Buys Willis Home

Mrs. Florence D. Grunvold has purchased the Willis home in Woodside Heights, according to deed filed with County Recorder T. Clark Rice Tuesday. California Pacific Title & Trust Co., which handled the papers, said the selling price was $14,000. The seller was Mrs. Dorothy C. Willis.

CHARTER: Changes Effective

The district attorney's office in an informal opinion has ruled that the five charter amendments adopted by the county electorate in November became effective Jan. 6, the day they were ratified by the legislature. Dep. Dist. Atty. Daniel E. Sullivan said this means that County Executive Frederick Peterson must fill existing vacancies on the board of health and welfare before Saturday or forfeit the appointive power to the board of supervisors.

Usually reliable courthouse quarters mentioned Dr. H. Wade Macomber, Burlingame physician and former city health officer there, and Daniel J. O'Connell, San Mateo funeral director and former deputy county coroner, as two potential appointees. Executive Frederick Peterson is believed to have contacted both men. Dr. Macomber is a member of the Burlingame planning commission and his wife, also a doctor of medicine, is devoting much of her time to the San Mateo County Blood Bank. O'Connell is a director of the San Mateo County Tuberculosis and Health Assn.

Under the 1942 charter amendments the health board is composed of three physicians, a sanitary engineer, a dentist, a layman, and ex-officio, the county superintendent of schools. The amendment added one physician and a dentist.

Dr. N. D. Morrison Sr., only physician now on the board, is holding office despite expiration of his term until a successor is appointed. The vacancy created by the death of Dr. Will Rebec of Belmont has never been filled. The term of Dr. A. E. O'Neill, Redwood City dentist, will expire this month.

Dr. O'Neill is the layman member of the board as it is now constituted. Albert H. Randall, Burlingame labor leader, is the sanitary engineer, but there was speculation whether or not he would continue on the health board in view of his recent appointment to the county civil service commission.

This made possible a clean sweep of the health board with the exception of the ex-officio member, it was pointed out. It was considered doubtful that the supervisors would confirm the reappointment of Dr. O'Neill.

Chief point of controversy on the health board was an effort to dislodge Dr. C. C. Gans, county health director, from his post. Dist. Atty. Gilbert D. Ferrell has given his opinion that Dr. Gans is now protected by civil service.

Railway traffic in Italy continues to decline and civilians have been directed to limit travel to essential needs, says the Department of Commerce.

VICTORY BOOKS: Chairmen Reports 500 Volumes Donated

Nearly 500 books have been donated in three weeks to the Victory Book Campaign now under way to provide more books for the armed forces, according to Miss Wilhelmina Harper, city librarian, and Miss Clara Dills, librarian for San Mateo County. The campaign is being supervised nationally by the American Library Association, American Red Cross and the United teries, late novels, and classics, Service Organizations.

With no maximum goal set, sponsors of the drive hope that the 1943 campaign will bring more and better books than the 2500 donated last year. So far the quality of the books has been generally excellent, Miss Dills declared.

Sorting of books to weed out undesirable ones and classifying them as to type is being done under the direction of Mrs. Fred Blase and Mrs. S. S. Mayo. Many recent best sellers, sure to be popular in camp libraries, have been donated, they declare. Also included are many of the popular paper-backed books of mystery the size that may be tucked into a service-man's pocket.

"If it's a book you want to keep, it's a good book to give" is the slogan for the campaign. Books should be recent, or classics that are always popular, or technical books contents of which are still up to date, say the sponsors. They should also be in good condition and of good appearance. To be avoided are childish boys' and girls' books, sentimental love stories, and ancient text books (unless mathematics or foreign language books or dictionaries).

Mrs. Roscoe Wyatt, representing the Redwood City Red Cross chapter, has asked clubs and other organizations to canvass their membership for books. Several have already agreed to help. The Redwood City Woman's Club will have its collection at its second meeting in February. Sequoia High School's campaign, which brought in over 1000 books last year, will get under way this week under sponsorship of the Junior Red Cross and Miss Ann Burns, librarian.

TAXES: Association Survey Shows County Levy Reduction

San Mateo County property taxes, school district and other district levies within the county for the current fiscal year total $3,513,088, a decrease from the $3,997,899 levy for the 1941-42 fiscal year, the California Taxpayers' Assn. stated today, making public its study of property tax levies in California counties

The levy for San Mateo County current purposes for 1942-43 amounted to $1,405,025, compared with the $1,471,109 tax of last year; $27,208 was levied for county bonds, compared with $97,687 for last year.

Total school district taxes for current purposes were $1,493,729, while the levy for 1941-42 fiscal year was $1,771,332. School bond levies amounted to $335,423 for the current year and to $398,662 for the past year, the association announced. Special district levies were $251,703 this year and $259,109 last year.

Throughout the entire state this decrease in levies was noted by the association, which cited the 1942-43 levies as the first break in the up-trend in local tax levies since the climb began from the 1934-35 depression low. City tax levies are not included in the survey, the association pointed out.

Gas Rate Cut Starts Feb. 15

Redwood City gas consumers were today reminded by Pacific Gas & Electric Co. officials that they will enjoy a 3.8 per cent saving on all gas meter readings on or after Feb. 15.

Redwood City is the only community in South County which will benefit by the California Railroad Commission's rate reduction ruling. Menlo Park, Atherton, Belmont and San Carlos will continue at the present rate, officials said

The rate changes affect 62 California cities, according to the railroad commission, for a total saving of $1,450,000 a year on the basis of the company's current business.

John Way Leaves Estate in Trust

The will of John H. Way, retired San Mateo industrialist, filed at superior court in Redwood City provides that his estate shall be left in trust to provide lifetime income for his widow and two daughters.

A son, Stuart C. Way of San Francisco, was left $100, "this amount only being left him for personal reasons with which he is familiar," the will said.

Way anticipated that his wife's share of the community property would provide her an income of $150 monthly, but provided that if it did not the difference should be made up equally from the trust funds left his daughters, Geraldine and Athelyn Wetherell of San Mateo. Bulk of the estate, valued in excess of $10,000, was left in trust for the daughters.

Way, who was manager of the Waterbury Watch and Clock Co. when he retired 20 years ago, died Jan. 28. He was 89. His will was written Oct. 15, 1942.

Evacuation Rules To Be Distributed

SAN MATEO—Printed evacuation instructions soon will be distributed to every house in San Mateo County, Theodore M. Lilienthal, managing director of the San Mateo County Civilian Defense Council, said today following a meeting of the council in Hillsborough.

Forty thousand of the instruction cards now are being printed, he said, and will be distributed by all councils in the county to every home, where they are intended to be placed on walls in conspicuous places. Distribution should be ready to start within a week, he said.

The three most heavily populated countries in the world are Russia, India and China.

REMEMBER NATURAL GAS IS A WAR MATERIAL · USE IT WISELY

How to Save Money
Save Heat
Save Fuel

The saving of Natural Gas fuel is very important today. War industries going full blast are using an increasing amount of this fuel. It takes a huge amount of Natural Gas to heat homes, to cook and to heat water. There will be enough if each user will save fuel by eliminating waste heat.

Here Are Ten Heat-Saving Suggestions:

1. Check Heat Leaks at Windows. If there is a stream of cold air leaking through or around a window, plug that leak. As temporary weather stripping insert folded wrapping paper or newspaper between the window sash and window frame.
2. Close Bedroom Door at Night. If you open bedroom windows at night keep the bedroom door closed. Place a rug against the bottom of the door. There is no need to chill the rest of the house during sleeping hours.
3. Close Fireplace Damper. If you have a furnace and fireplace, close the damper when the fireplace is not in use. More furnace heat is sucked up a chimney than is produced by a grate fire.
4. Close Garage Doors Under House. If your garage is under the house keep garage doors closed. Open garages scoop in cold air and chill floors unnecessarily.
5. Overheating your House is NOT Healthful. Every degree of heat in your house over 65 degrees uses up from 2% to 6% more fuel. Keep comfortable, but do not overheat your rooms.
6. Do Not Use your Range as a Heater. Using a range oven as a heater is inefficient and shortens the range's life. Use your range for its one important job—cooking. Remember that these days a range may be hard to replace.
7. When the Sun Comes Out—Turn out your Heater. It is a good rule to keep lower heating temperature during the day when you are active about the house. Use no heat when the sun shines and outside temperature is 65 degrees.
8. Shut Off Unused Rooms. Turn off the heat in unused rooms and close the doors and you will have more heat for the other rooms.
9. Open and Close Outside Doors Promptly. A lot of cold air rushes in when outside doors are opened. Warn the children particularly about this. Do not stand and talk in an open door.
10. Keep Window Locks Fastened Tightly. Window catches, especially on French windows, work loose. Fasten these catches down hard. This forces the sash against the window frame and checks incoming draft.

Biscuit Company Opens Campaign

Stressing its faith in newspaper advertising as an "unexcelled means of keeping the public informed of the constantly-changing food situation," the National Biscuit Co. this week launched a striking new series of Snow Flake Soda Cracker advertisements in the Redwood City Tribune.

"Our customers in Redwood City look to the Tribune for their latest news," Nabisco officials here stated. "News of food on the 'home front' as well as last-minute battle news."

The new Snow Flake ads, which will appear every Thursday on Tribune's popular food pages, explain how today's busy housewife can serve more appealing meals despite rationing and shortages.

Soups and salads using non-rationed foods are featured. Suggestions are offered for making the scarcer foods go farther. Many ordinary dishes, the messages explain, take on new flair and appetite-appeal when served with fresh, flaky Snow Flakes.

Redwood City grocers are cooperating with the campaign by displaying Snow Flake Soda Crackers and the foods that go so well with them. The Tribune is among over 100 leading Pacific Coast newspapers carrying this new National Biscuit Co. ad series.

Time for three employes of the National Motor Bearing Co. of Redwood City charged with conspiracy to commit petty theft to plead today had continued to Saturday at 11 a. m. The trio was scheduled to appear Saturday in Police Judge Edward I. McAuliffe's court but the case was continued a week on request of Defense Atty. Wayne R. Millington of Redwood City.

The three allegedly faked time card records at the plant. They are free on $250 cash bail each.

The defendants are Jacob Kasten, 26, Menlo Park; Caesar J. Ricci, 19, and Bernard G. Lambert, 18, of Redwood City. All three worked on the swing shift at the war industry plant.

George Gilboy was elected president of the Men's Club of St. Joseph's School, Menlo Park, at a meeting held Sunday in Mother Foley Gymnasium. The club plans to meet there on the third Thursday of each month to carry out a full schedule of activities for the year.

Among the proposed projects are improvements for the school building.

Officers who will serve with Mr. Gilboy are:

East Palo Alto Boy Sues for $50,000

Frank Anderson, 14, through his father Frank E. Anderson, 2247 Cooley, East Palo Alto, today had filed suit in superior court at Redwood City for $50,000 general damages plus expenses as the result of an accident on Bayshore Hwy. ½-mile south of Redwood City on Jan. 8.

Named defendants in the suit are Antonio Souza, truck driver, and Emily Freitas, truck owner, of Sunnyvale. The complaint alleges that Anderson, a Sequoia High School student, was riding a bicycle north and was struck by the Freitas truck, which was driven by Souza.

Young Anderson was riding his bicycle to school when struck, according to his attorney, Norman S. Menifee of Redwood City. The youth is in a serious condition in Mills Hospital in San Mateo, Menifee said. He has a broken back and numerous other injuries, the complaint states.

From 1777 to 1821 mayors of New York City were appointed by the governor and four senators constituting a council of appointment.

Clyde Whithurst, 19, 140 Northumberland St., Redwood City, involved in a truck-motorcycle accident Sunday, today was recovering in a San Mateo hospital from a possible fractured right leg and abrasions, according to hospital officials. It had been previously reported that Whithurst received minor injuries and had been released from the Palo Alto Hospital.

Whithurst's mother, Mrs. Lora Whithurst, told the Tribune that Whithurst was not driving the motorcycle when the accident occurred. Reports of the Redwood City police and Community Hospital, however, state that Whithurst was the driver.

Also injured in the accident was John Contreno, 17, of 422 Carlos Ave., Redwood City, who is recovering from facial cuts and bruises in the Palo Alto Hospital. George A. Kiefer, 33, Belmont, driver of the truck, was uninjured.

Dog Frustrates Burglary Attempt

A dog at the Raven, 1328 El Camino Real, frustrated a burglary attempt yesterday, Redwood City police reported. A broken window and footprints inside the establishment bore testimony to the attempt, but nothing was disturbed. A dog sleeping in another room was awakened by the intruder and barked. The intruder sped away in a car.

In San Carlos, Police Chief Edward Wheeler disclosed, $40 in nickels was stolen from a juke box and cigaret machine at the Boots & Saddle, 1240 El Camino Real, Monday night.

VICTORY GARDENS: Sequoia High Will Promote Home Growing by Students

Plans for promoting a victory garden in every Sequoia High School student's backyard — or in the vacant lot next door — have been worked out by a joint student-faculty committee, Otis M. Carrington, chairman of the committee, announced today.

First activity in the gardening program will be an assembly Feb. 11, at which County Agriculture Comsr. Max J. Leonard will be asked to speak. At that time, a check will be made of the students who already have or plan to have victory gardens at their homes.

The committee hopes to encourage each student to plant a well-rounded produce garden, Carrington said. It will aid the students in their gardening problems by distributing pamphlets to the gardeners or by writing booklets about each type of plant and its care. Mrs. Louise Barker and Richard Mackintosh, head Sequoia gardener, will nave charge of this phase of the program.

Gardening classes will raise tomato plants and other transplantable vegetables during the course of their studies, Mrs. Barker indicated. These will be made available to Sequoia students at cost, she said. Complete directions will accompany each sale to the students.

When the gardens are in their prime this Summer, a judge selected by the committee, will inspect the individual plots for competition. Winners will be selected on the basis of general appearance of the gardens and on the balance of various types of plants, rather than on productivity, Mrs. Barker said. War bonds will be awarded the winners.

Funds for the prizes will be derived from the proceeds of a spring musical program directed by Carrington, with both orchestral and vocal divisions of the music department participating.

15 Speeders Forfeit Ration Books

Teddy Lauman, chairman of Ration Board 103 at Redwood City, Monday announced that 15 speeders have lost their gasoline rations for the duration and that 10 more face similar action as soon as their ration records can be located.

Lauman listed the following schedule of penalties: Speeding 55 to 65 miles an hour, cancellation of all gasoline rations for the duration of the war.

Speeding 45 to 55 miles an hour, temporary suspensions of rations for 10 days or more.

Speeding 35 to 45 miles an hour, warnings, often on postcards for all to see.

RECORDS MISSING

The chairman said that the names of those whose gasoline rations have been canceled are not available because no separate record has been kept. A search of the entire gasoline ration file would be necessary to find them.

For some unexplained reason, Lauman said, the ration records of 10 drivers due for ration cancellation cannot be found. Lauman speculated that the records may have been misplaced, that the drivers may be registered with other ration boards, or that they may not have ration books.

NAMES LISTED

Lost, strayed or stolen are the ration records of the following, up for ration cancellation:

Eugene W. Brown, 1932 Menalto Ave., East Palo Alto.

Joseph Winsatt, 77 21st Ave., San Mateo.

Louis M. Guffanti, 235 O'Connor St., East Palo Alto.

Jasper H. Haseltine, 2371 Poplar Ave., East Palo Alto.

George T. Marcopulos, 312 Stambaugh St., Redwood City.

Robert Nash, 936 Walnut St., San Carlos.

Vasto Sardi, 719 Elm St., Redwood City.

Ted L. Smyth, c/o Lee Merrill, Redwood City.

William McCain, 71 Fair Oaks Ave., Redwood City.

David H. Willard, Jefferson Ave. and Alameda de las Pulgas, Redwood City.

Also listed as missing are the ration records for the following drivers, accused of speeding between 45 and 55 miles an hour:

David Guy, Rt. 1, Box 825, Menlo Park; William E. Burke, 1041 Menlo Ave., Menlo Park; Edward Cotherman, 17th and Fair Oaks Ln., Menlo Park; Sanford T. Ratliff, 425 Hudson St., Redwood City; Herbert K. Taylor, Los Gatos; Grady O. Timble, 1321 Middlefield Rd., Redwood City, and Harry Wendell, San Francisco.

He warned that all motorists are expected to affix one, and only one, ration sticker to windshields, that one firmly.

M.P. Fire Injures 2 Employes

MENLO PARK—A fire which broke out in the Menlo School and Junior College cleaning plant late yesterday resulted in injury of two of the school's employes and caused an estimated $500 damage.

Omer Dillman, who was working in the cleaning plant when the fire started, suffered first, second and third degree burns on both legs and both hands in attempting to extinguish the blaze. He was treated and spent last night in the school infirmary and was released this morning.

Harvey Salzman, school engineer, suffered first degree burns on the left wrist and was treated by firemen on the scene.

Menlo Park firemen, who extinguished the blaze, said it apparently had started from cleaning fluid which ignited grease and sawdust on the floor of the cleaning plant. The fire quickly spread to clothing in the plant, and destroyed the clothing, some window shades, and badly damaged a steam press before it was brought under control.

The cleaning plant, located in a garage block behind the school, is used to clean students' clothing.

SSF Woman Hurt In Auto Mishap

Police reported the car was driven by Walter Lee Fauer, 17, 382 C St., South San Francisco, and said the accident occurred when Fauer, driving west on Baden Ave., struck Mrs. Guidotti as she was crossing the street.

KIWANIS: McCarthy Tells California Mission's History

Paul A. McCarthy, city attorney and president of the San Mateo County Historical Society, told the Kiwanis Club yesterday noon of the development, decay and restoration of Mission La Purisima Concepcion.

The mission, located at Lompoc in Northern Santa Barbara County, was one of 21 established by the Franciscans in California under subsidies from the Mexican government. It was dedicated on Dec. 8, 1787, and given its name because that was also the date of the annual Catholic observance of the Immaculate Conception.

The mission was destroyed by earthquake in 1812; was restored and used to great advantage until 1835, when it lost its holdings through the secularization act of the rebellious Californians; and then fell into gradual decay until 1934 when a restoration project was undertaken by the CCC, under auspices of the State Park Commission, of which Arthur V. Swift of Redwood City is a member.

The CCC boys rebuilt the mission exactly as the Indians had more than a century before, using handmade adobe bricks and tiles for their work and following the original plans throughout. Today it is a state park site and will be maintained as a symbol of California's heritage, McCarthy said.

McCarthy, who was introduced by Daniel E. Sullivan, deputy district attorney of San Mateo County, pointed out that Mission La Purisima Concepcion typifies the religious and educational leadership which the 18th century padres brought to the native Indians of California. "The missions show that our state history is founded not on selfish acquisition, but on a movement consecrated to high ideals," he concluded.

Marines To Form Bagpipe Band

BELFAST —The U. S. Marines pride themselves in always being first—and perhaps this is another to add to their score.

They are going to form a bagpipe band.

Capt. Van Leer Kirkman, commandant of the U. S. naval operating base at Londonderry, was so impressed by a local home guard bagpipe band in a parade in which the marines marched that he announced the Americans would form one.

The search is now underway for the necessary bagpipes.

SSF Council To Vote On Police Chief Pay

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO—Whether South San Francisco will continue to pay its chief of police extra for the extra hours he works each day directing heavy traffic will be decided Tuesday night when the city council gathers for a special meeting to discuss salaries of all city employes. On their decision will depend whether Chief of Police Louis Belloni continues to serve the city or whether South San Francisco will look for another police chief.

Chief Belloni indicated today that if he does not continue to receive the extra pay, South San Francisco will have to look for another police chief.

Lauman Urges Supply Balance

Housewives today were urged to take stock of their canned goods and to plan to keep on hand a balanced supply of the rationable commodities to tide over the week of the "freeze."

Teddy Lauman, chairman of OPA's south county rationing board said:

"The five cans per person to be allowed under the forthcoming rationing program, should be ample to tide everyone through the "freeze" period of one week when no rationed goods will be sold. This is the week during which registration for War Book 2 will take place.

Lauman explained that the allotment is five cans per person, so that a family of four would be allowed 20 cans for that week so that no hardships will result.

The highest human habitation in the world is a shepherd's hut 17,100 feet above sea level in the Andes of Peru.

'Dimout Dance' Created by Soldiers

BELFAST —Could be that a new fad for dances was devised by accident here recently.

While a U. S. Army band was playing at a charity dance the electric lights failed. The musicians obtained a kerosene lamp and placed it in the center of the platform. Candles were placed around the dance floor.

They borrowed flashlights to read the music. At the end of each number the flashlights were extinguished to conserve the batteries. Everyone had such a good time that they extended the dance an extra hour.

BOY SCOUTS: National Observance Will Be Held in S. M. County Next Week

Sunday will mark the start of Boy Scout Week, the annual "February Event" in scouting, County Scout Executive Edward A. Barrer said today.

Every San Mateo County troop in planning a program in observance of this 33rd anniversary of the founding of the scout movement in America. Troops will attend church services in uniformed groups to open the week's observance.

"Demonstrations will be held to inform the communities of San Mateo County that scouts are fully prepared to 'toughen up, buckle down and carry on to victory,'" said Barrer.

IN WAR EMERGENCY

"Scouting the War Emergency" is to be the theme of the program of San Mateo County council for the current year, according to plans adopted by the council executive board at a meeting held Friday with Perry A. Bygdnes presiding.

At the meeting President Bygdnes appointed the following committee chairmen: Philip M. Lilienthal Jr., finance and civilian defense co-ordinator; Ferd Prince, troop organization and extension; Bertram Watson Sr., advancement; Ian Lang, leadership and training; John F. Linden, camping and outdoor activities; Louis B. Dematteis, health and safety; Dr. J. M. Foley, Cub Scouts; T. W. Spiller, Sea Scouts and senior scouts; Thomas C. Douglass, public relations.

NATIONAL AWARD

A gold plaque, gift of Dr. James E. West, chief scout executive of Boy Scouts of America, to the San Mateo County Council, has been on display at Boy Scout headquarters in San Mateo. The plaque is in recognition of the increased membership of scouts, cubs and Sea Scouts during the past year by 86 units in San Mateo County.

TROOP ACTIVITIES

Eagle Scout Cecil Wells will be available at the Redwood City scout office for the purpose of instructing scouts for tenderfoot, first and second class tests, on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 4 to 5:30 p.m.

This additional service will lessen the scoutmasters' burden in many tests, according to Executive Barrer. Barrer will be on duty at the Redwood City office from 3 to 5:30 p.m. on the same days, for consultation and merit badge tests.

TROOP ACTIVITIES

Dep. Scout Comsr. W. P. Stevens visited troops 162 and 104 last week. Both troops are planning spring hikes in the near future.

Troop 162 is in the process of organizing a senior scout patrol. Members of 162 who have reached their 15th birthday will form the nucleus of the patrol, with First Class Scout Bob Streeter in charge of instructions. Bob Silvestri has been appointed senior patrol leader.

At the meeting of 162 Richard and Robert Stenson were awarded attendance pins. Knot tying contests and blackout identification completed the evening's activities.

Sharp Park Bus May Stop Service

SHARP PARK—Application of John F. Nolan, who operates a bus service between Sharp Park and San Francisco, to discontinue service promised to have reverberations in this Coastside community.

Dep. Sheriff Al Coe predicted that shoppers would be up in arms.

Nolan has asked the railroad commission in San Francisco for permission to discontinue service, stating that the war had caused revenue to drop to a vanishing point. The line was established in June, 1941.

Coe said Nolan recently asked residents of Sharp Park to raise a $200 fund which would permit him to meet overhead costs, but no money was forthcoming. Coe pointed out that bus schedules are so arranged that the service is not suitable for defense plant workers and is used mostly by shoppers.

Vaccination was discovered by Edward Jenner, an English physician.

Toastmasters Have Varied Program

new club semester Monday by hearing five speakers on various subjects.

Tracing the career of the Negro scientist, George Washington Carver, James Batchelor spoke on "How Much Is a Horse Worth?" and Chester Armstrong, new president of the club, declared, "You Get a Raise, Little Man"—a raise in income tax levies.

Ray Moore, the third speaker, asked, "Do You Have a Solution?" in outlining the unemployment problem which will confront a post-war America. What faith has done for American heroes of this war was discussed by Earl Whitaker, whose topic was "Is It Worth Trying?" Albert Armitage suggested that "One Way to Save Money" is to take up coin collecting as a hobby.

Donald L. Bogie acted as chairman for the evening.

During the business session, Henry Pahland was selected as one of two representatives of the club in the forthcoming district speaking contest. Dr. Virgil Anderson, club critic, will select the second representative from among the club speakers during February.

Joseph Beeson Joins Pan-American

SAN CARLOS — San Carlos School will operate for the rest of the current year without a principal, Supt. Clark Robinson announced, for Joseph A. Beeson, principal of the school, has resigned to join Pan-American Airways.

Robinson will be acting principal for the remainder of the year, he indicated.

Beeson served at San Carlos School as eighth grade teacher last year and served as principal the first half of this year.

Beeson has reported at Treasure Island to train for three months as a navigator with an air transport service. His wife and infant son plan to reside with her parents in San Francisco, for a time, at least, friends said.

Soups your whole Family will enjoy

It's high time for those hearty, satisfying meal-in-themselves soups to stage a comeback, for they're the kind of offerings that do a nourishing wartime job. Simple though they are, they can offer everything in the way of good eating. And it's just the right time of year to let them do delightfully appetizing things to your menu.

BRING BACK THE SOUP POT—Remember the soup pot that simmered continuously on the back of Grandmother's stove? Every bone, bit of meat trimming, leftover meat, and drippings went into the pot to make a rich stock for a variety of substantial soups. The idea is just as good as it ever was. Save every iota of trimming, rind, scrap and bone, put them in a pot, cover with water, and simmer covered until every bit of good is gleaned from them. Strain from the makings, and you have a rich stock to serve as a basis for soups, gravies and sauces.

BUILDING A SOUP—To this stock, add the water you've saved from cooking vegetables (they've more flavor and vitamins than water), vegetables, rice, barley, spaghetti, potatoes, or anything else that pleases your palate. If you have leftover vegetables, use them. Just heat them in the soup, and be careful not to overcook any of the vegetables, for they'll be mushy and not so appetizing.

Season to taste, and remember that there are other seasonings besides salt and pepper. A dash of meat sauce, catsup, thyme, the juice of a lemon, onion, and garlic are just a few things that will give personality to soups.

CREAMED SOUPS—From the same stock, you can make any number of delicious cream soups. Thicken the stock with 2 tbsps. flour and 2 tbsps. melted butter or substitute and two cups of milk, plain or diluted evaporated. When thick, add the vegetable waters, about 2 cups, and the cooked vegetables. Mix well and heat to almost boiling and serve in generous portions.

CANNED AND DEHYDRATED SOUPS—For those quick soups that start the meal off successfully or serve as a light meal in themselves, canned soups or dehydrated soups which come in both cans and packages, are the happy answer. Dilute them if called for with vegetable water if you have it. These soups are downright delicious and do a rollicking good job of supplementing that meat or meatless course.
